Montgomery Blair's Impudent Threat of War.

Tuar played-out politician and fossilized specimen of conservatism, MONTGOMERY BLAIR, who was ignominiously kicked out of President Lixcoun's Cabinet ducing the war, because he had become a stench in the nostrils of the loyal people of the United States, had the audacity vesterday, at a Democratic gathering up in Berks county, to threaten the country with another civil war, "the battle-fields of which would be in the North, while the South would remain a unit," if the Union party should carry the elections this tall. This is the old disunion Democratic cry over again, "Vote as we dictate, or we will rebel." It virtually says to the people of the United States, "You are to be controlled in your political action, not by your judgment of what is right and just, and best for the country, but by the arrogant dictation of a set of political scoundrels, who will inaugurate civil warif you do not yield to their demands."

We respectfully inform old Mr. BLASE that this kind of talk is "played out." We have just put down one Rebellion gotten up by the leaders of the Democratic party, and we have the men and the means and the will to put down another. The people are in no mood to listen to these impagent threats from vile demagogues, who seek to accomplish by intimidation what they cannot by sound reason. The people of Pennsylvania are going to vote this fall as they please-tor just such members of Congress as they please, without being frightened by these vaporings of Rebel sympathizers about "a civil war, the battle-fields of which will be at the North," if they happen to choose Republicans, as they have for some time been in the habit of doing.

There is to us something inexpressibly offensive in these attempts of desperate and abandoned politicians to browbeat and bully the people. "Do as we tell you, or there shall be war; vote as we dictate, or civil strife shall be at your doors." What language is this to use in a free country and to a free people! What insufferable arrogance in any set of men to thus put themselves up above the people as their masters and directors! How long would free government be possible, if this appeal from the ballotbox to lorce were to be sanctioned?

If the Democrats may say, "We will rebet unless our ticket is elected," so may the Republicans; and then we have anarchy. Of course we have no idea that these politicians, reckless and abendoned as we know them to be, would dare to attempt to carry their threats into execution; but their mere utterance is an insult, most gross and rankling, to every citizen who values the purity and perpetuity of our republican system of government. The very corner stone of our free institutions is that all our political questions must be settled at the ballot-box, and there alone. He who threatens war if a certain ticket which he does not like is successful, is a villain and traitor at heart, and deserves the execration of every good citizen.

In Congress, Yesterday.

YESTERDAY was a busy day in Congress. In the Senate, the Finance Committee reported the Miscellaneous Appropriation bill. The Funding bill was considered, some amendments adopted, and further action postponed until to-day. The bill allowing bridges to be constructed over the Mississippi and Missouri rivers was passed, with amendments, which go to the House for concurrence. Senator Pomeroy announced the death of Senator Lane, of Kansas. Remarks were also made by Senators Handricks and Doo-

In the House, the Senate amendments to the bill reviving the rank of general in the United States army were passed. The contested case of KOONTZ VS. COFFROTH Was decided in favor of the former, and he was sworn in. The revised Tariff bill was passed, and a joint resolution of adjournment on the 25th instant was adopted. The Senate bill to fix the number of Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States was passed. The Speaker presented a message from the Senate, announcing the death of Senator LANE. Remarks were made by Representative CLARKE, of Kansas, and Messrs. FARQUHAR and NIBLACE.

Backing out of It.

JUDGE HUGHES, of Indiana, a War Democrat, and one of the Executive Committee of a JOHNSON Club at Washington, has repudiated the Philadelphia Convention, on the ground that the Copperheads have got control of it. He thus addresses Governor Monrow, of Indiana:-

"Governor Morron:-The proposed Philadelphia Convention tends to the absorption by the Democratic party of the Conservative Union men of the North. I am not at present ready for such a jusion, if it is to be. Let the Democratic party first retire its anti-war leaders, and let sufficient time clapse for the grass to grow on the graves of the heroic dead. For the presadvise all Union men to remain steadfast in their own organization, hoping that its dissensions may yet be healed, and to keep aloof from procoedings which can only result in the election of the regular Democratic ticket in Indiana. I heartily approve of the President's policy, and regard him personally with esteem and friendship, and would cheerfully participate in any eting to express appreciation of his measures: but I am not ready to furnish materials to the radicals by returning to power men who incited resistance to laws made to fill up the ranks of army. I speak only for myself, and no other is responsible for this communication.

NEW INDIAN TREATY. - The treaty with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians, which has been approved by the President and submitted to the Senate for ratification, binds them never to re-establish slavery, and to give forty acres of land and the right of suffrage to each adult male negro lately held in slavery among them. Another War Pred cted.

THE Winchester (Va.) Journal publishes the report of a meeting held in Frederick county, to elect delegates to the Philadelphia Convention. One of the speakers, a Mr. URIEL WRIGHT, said he was willing to indorse all the Philadelphia call but one paragraph, concerning the abandonment of the right to secede. To this he objected. It was not abandoned. He still held it as a right, and he knew that the South hold it. Their opinions were not changed by the adverse results of the war, and he was opposed to a wholesale indorsement of the call. He was opposed to war; but, he asked, what would be the result it. in the next Presidential election, the united votes of the Northern Democrats and the Southern States should give a majority of the Presidential electors to their candidates, and, in the official count, the Southern States should be excluded? Then, with the President at our head, and a strong party in the North to support be turned. He saw car in the dates would turned. He saw war in the distance, and advised to be prepared for it.

LOGICAL. -At the Democratic meeting held at Reading, at which MONTGOMERY BLAIR and G. H. PENBLETON linked hands, and their followers huzzahed together, we find the following resolution adopted:-

"Resoived, That the tariff men of Pennsylvania may see by the votes of Senators SuMngR and Wilson, of Massachusetts, and Foster, of Connecticut, that the processions of frieadship for Pennsylvania, by the radicals of New England, are as succere as their professions of regard for the Union of the States."

"JACK BUNSBY" could not have given us more able logic. If three out of twelve Senators vote for a postnonement for four months, therefore the New England States are all false to the Union. Of course one virtually follows as the consequence of the other.

But here is another interence also which might be drawn. If three Republican Senators, by voting for a postponement, declared themselves enemies to the interests of Pennsylvania, what do the votes of the Democrats on the same side evince? It Messrs. SUMNER, WILSON, and FOSTER are our State foes, where do Messrs. DAVIS, DOOLITTLE, GUTHRIE, HENDERSON, HEN-DEICKS, JOHNSON, NESMITH, NORTON, BIDDLE, SAULSBURY, and WILLEY stand? Are not the whole Democatic delegation our foes, and is not the party they represent?

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE EVENING TELEGRAPH, & Thursday, July 19, 1866.

The Stock Market was very dull this morning, with the exception of Railroad shares, which continue the most active on the list, Philadelphia and Eric sold largely at 314@314, an advance of 4; Pennsylvania Railroad at 56, no change; and Reading at 551@55), a slight advance, 57 was bid for Norristown; 544 tor Minehill; 37 for North Pennsylvania; 625 for Lehigh Valley; 30 for Elmira common; 36 for Catawissa preferred; and 444 for Northern Central.

In City Passenger Railroad shares there is 'ery little doing. Hestonville sold at 181/6019. 88 was pin for Second and Third; 20 for Thirteenth and Firteenth; 38 for Spruce and Piac; 13 for Ridge avenue; and 414 for Union.

Government bonds are inactive and rather lower. 109; was bid for 6s of 1881; 104 for 7:30s;

1065 for old 5-298; and 285 for 10-40s. City loans are unchanged; the new issue sold

Bank shares are firmly held at full prices, but we hear of no sales, 225 was bid for North American; 1424 for Philadelphia; 126 for Farmers' and Mechanics'; 54 for Commercial; 94 for Northern Laberties: 100 for Southwark: 53 for Penn Township; 544 for Girard; 80 for Western; 654 for City; and 64 for Corn Exchange.

In Canal shares there is very little movement. Lehigh Navigation sold at 58, no change, 35i was bid for Schuylkill Navigation preferred; 120 for Morris Canal preferred; 14 for Susquehanna Canal; 57 tor Delaware Division; and 674 tor Wyoming Valley Canal.

Ouotations of Gold-10 A. M., 1501: 11 A. M., 1504; 12 M., 1504; 1 P. M., 1504.

-The interest, in gold, on first mortgage bonds of the Union Pacific Railway Company, Eastern Division, due August 1st, will be paid on presentation of the coupons at the banking house of Jay Cooke & Co., New York, on and after that date.

-The New York Times this morning says:-"Money continues abundant at five per cent., with a few execeptional loans at four. The discount line is easy, and first-class commercial paper passes at 51@7 per cent. The Treasury disbursements are increasing the supply of loanable funds at this centre."

-The Boston Traveiler of Tuesday says:-"The stock market is inactive for banks, factory, insurance, railroad, land, and mining shares, and interest-paying railroad bonds; but there is more doing in Government securities at the Board and in the open market. To-morrow will be observed as a close holiday, on account of the commencement at Harvard University; consequently there will be no meeting of the brokers for business."

-The Chicago Tribune of Sunday says:-"The Money Market closed in rather a peculiar state. Balances are low both here and in New York, and while exchange on the East is scarce, there is also a short supply of currency. Meanwhile there is a very active demand money, and our bankers have enough to do to satisfy their customers and keep the country banks running. still, as a great many time bills have gone forward with produce, relief will probably come at an early day in the shape of heavy balances in the East. The rate of discount at the bank is steady at 10 per cent, per month. The market for Eastern exchange remains very arm, but we have no advance to note in rates. The banks are selling to each other at par, but the demand at this rate is greater than the supply." PHILADELPHIA STOCK EXCHANGE SALES TO-DAY

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

-Professor Silliman, in his diary, speaks of a visit he made to Saratoga in 1797. It was rather in contrast with the Saratoga of our

mee. He says;—
We mounted our horses one day and rode seven We mounted our horses one day and rode seven or eight miles through the pine forest, with its delightful fragrance, and arrived at a place where they said there were some mixers! springs. There was not even a village, but only two or three log houses standing among the pine trees. The people were civil, and provided hay for our horses, and for ourselves bacon and eggs. They piloted as into a morass were nature was unsubdued, and stepping cauliously from bog to boy, we soon arrived at a soring which from bog to bog, we soon arrived at a soring which they called the Congress Spring, waite tasted as it does now.'

-An auctioneer selling a library, and not being well oosted on books, scanned the titles, trusted to luck, and went ahead. "Here you have Bunyan's 'Pilerim's Progress;' how much moffered for it? How much do I hear for the Pilgrim's Progress,' by John Bunyan? 'Tis a first-rate book, gentlemen, with six superior illustrations; how much do I hear? All about the Pilgrims, by John Bunyan, Tell where they come from, an' where they land, an' what they done after they landed. Here's a picture of one of them goin' about Plymouth peddlin' with a pack on his back."

-Some one who has been to see Miss Augusta J. Evans says: - "She lives about four miles from Mobile, in a modest, unpretending cottage; yet evidences of taste and retinement are everywhere visible. We were agreeably disappointed in her appearance and manners. She is easy and cordial in her manners, with mirth-loving disposition, and entirely devoid of pedantry or osten-tation. We were told by a leading publisher that she has still unwearted assiduty, and is now engaged on a new novel, which will be ready for publication in the fall."

-Elmore A. Studley, a clerk in the post office at New Bedford, Mass., for the past two years, has been arrested, charged with robbing the mails. He confessed his guilt.
